Panyard Jumbie Jam Reggae For Steel Drum Song Book

Synopsis

Jumbie Jam Reggae for Steel Drum Song Book. The Jumbie Jam Reggae for Steel Drum Songbook and Play-Along-CD provides charts and tunes that educate and allow you to jam with the band or hone your skills with the practice tracks. The book can be used to play other instruments too. Each song includes three parts; melody, harmony and chord strums; enabling your family and friends to jam as a band. Written for beginners to intermediate players, you don't have to know how to read music to use Jumbie Jam song books; the notes are marked by the note letter, which match the notes marked on the Jumbie Jam. Standard musical notation is also included, helping you to learn how to read music. It contains eight different reggae songs for the Steel Drum; Three Little Birds, Don't Worry Be Happy, Keep On Moving, Brown Eyed Girl, Drift Away, Is This Love, Red Red Wine, and Day-Oh.

A really useful book that helps you to get playing some well-known and really fun songs very fast. There are several "versions" of each song available: -one with guitar chords, lyrics, and the well-known and instantly recognizable "melody" notes that most folks would probably be looking for -one with "rhythm" notes that would help you learn to play backup on the steel drum...or if you had a second steel drum and two people wanted to play together -one with "strum" notes...if a steel drum player wanted to play "background" along with a guitar player before filling in with some "melody" sections. Because of the 3 different versions of each song, I think this book (and the others in the series) would be useful to many folks. Easy to read and doesn't require much music knowledge, but it's not "sans music convention", either...everything is written out in appropriate measures with real notes...real musicians should still find utility in this text. A really cool resource that sounds great on the Jumbie Jam!

A good transaction, quality book.

Great book! Easy to read and received it very quickly!

Loved it Thank You

We're jammin' now.
