I usually play this in the car on the way to work. There is laughter in the background at certain points as if maybe they recorded this during a class or something. I still gave it a five because I didn't think it took away from the experience. I actually prefer that because it feels like he's not just talking to me, but everyone. I would recommend others to get it.

My husband is not a reader. He prefers audio versions of most things he receives. I gave him this and he listened to it every morning on the way to work, and it helped encourage him in his faith as he found it harder to find the time to read each day. We are looking to buy more, as he's already finished!

Gave this to my husband who has really enjoyed listening to this as he drives during the work day

Bought this for my husband and he really enjoys it.

My husband enjoyed the devotions. He listened to them on his way to work.
