Customer Reviews

Borch, a cartographic publishing company from Germany, makes tough, long-lasting maps with non-toxic, environmentally responsible lamination material.

Awesome. A laminated map is great for plotting your desired places to visit and your hotel location with a dry erase marker. First go a tiny laminated map included with a Fodor's travel book of Madrid... print was WAY too small... Then got a "Streetwise" laminated map of Barcelona... 1/2 the city on each side.... very annoying. Have purchased the BORCH laminated maps for Amsterdam, Vienna and Budapest... AWESOME! Larger print, top 30 "sights" clearly listed and EASY to find. I'm an Eagle Scout and love maps. I'm looking forward to using the BORCH maps on our travels in 2016.

A good, practical city map with public transportation sub-maps. Easy to read and if you're smart enough to buy a chinagraph pencil you can mark the laminated map and then erase the markings. I've passed and a couple others to a relative who did almost the same trip (Vienna, Budapest & Prague) and she found them helpful too.

Though most street names / places were done in Hungarian, the major sights (and hotels) were identified in English on the map. It was very durable and accurate.

I only wish they had bus routes on it, but perhaps there are too many and they won't all fit on the map. I received the map of Prague for Christmas and I liked it so much that I bought this one too.

Preparing my trip to Budapest and wanted a good map to help us find our way around. This fit the bill, exactly what I was looking for. Love that I can write on it and it is waterproof, will not tear like paper maps.

Best map of Budapest. Waterproof. Easy to read. Some limited information is in English. Used this on a two-week trip, and easily found our way around the city.

Terrific map, pretty comprehensive, and so far indestructible. Ideally, would have had the tram lines on it.

Got this as a gift for my brother who is studying abroad in Budapest. It seemed very sturdy, and I liked that he could write on it with a dry-erase marker. I would definitely buy this map again.
