Sleeping Beauty: Easy Piano Picture Book (Faber Edition)

Synopsis

A royal christening is being celebrated with great pomp and rejoicing. But one name is missing from the guest list - and in her rage the uninvited godmother puts a terrible curse on the baby princess: On reaching the age of 16, she will prick her finger on a spindle and die. Can the gentle Lilac Fairy avert disaster and bring about a happy ending? Find out by reading and playing this Easy Piano Picture Book. Tchaikovsky's sumptuous ballet version of the famous fairy tale is here brought to life in words, easy-to-play piano extracts, and enhancing full-color illustrations.

Customer Reviews

This is an amazing book but definitely NOT for a beginner. It is for a very advanced piano player.

I enjoy all the Faber music-story publications. This one has especially beautiful illustrations. The musical excerpts are good. The story is well-presented.

I love this magical book. It is easy to read and the level is easy-intermediate. It is one of my most favorites. It is almost impossible to find "The Sleeping Beauty" by Tchaikovsky in the easy-intermediate level.

This book combines literature, art and music beautifully. The piano arrangement is of intermediate to advanced student level. A terrific book if your children want to perform for a small group.
