Fair. A bit dated. More info on MV would be helpful. Too much on lodging, not enough on activities.

One of the best travel guides that I've ever purchased. It starts with a list of "bests" (e.g., best beaches, best bike routes, best small towns and villages, best hotel deals). You can begin to build your trip around these "bests" instead of starting at page 1 and feeling overwhelmed by the volume of information about a region or country you've never visited. Highly recommend this guide!

Was a decent guide for the Cape though I felt like it didn't give enough detail about "new" restaurants or the places locals love. I found better ideas and reviews online from trip planners and vacationers,

Well structured and updated information. Targets both readers who want to read this book cover to cover, as well as those who simply want to access information quickly. I prefer hardcopy version.

I like the Frommers books. Accurate information and I learn something new even though we've gone to the Cape for years.

comprehensive and useful; a thorough description of where to go and what to do, plus directions about the infrastructure of travel & tourism

I always buy a Frommer's guide, when I travel. The information & reviews are reliable. This is a great resource!

Bought to research an upcoming trip / vacation and hope it helps me to create a good itinerary for it.
