Customer Reviews

"You'd have to be foolishly ambitious or ludicrously naive to attempt a book of 'everything' about a city that has dizzying diversity. Judging by the finished product, Jim Hynes is neither one nor the other, hitting a home run with the Montreal Book of Everything."

Hour Magazine "Congrats on the book! I've had to take it back from two different friends who tried to abscond with it after reading it at my place. An enlightening window into all that Montreal is and was."

Jim Hynes is a freelance writer. He lives in Montreal.

This small booklet gives a lot of historical, economic and cultural information about Montreal. It might serve as a good "overview" of the city. However, it does not offer much in the way of specific tourist attractions - and is not what I expected.
