Customer Reviews

im quite upset over this totally misleading cover, title, and "look inside" preview which would have us believe (and even pay) for a book that quite blatantly appears to advertise itself as a girl-dog erotic story. let me save you all some trouble and money by telling you it is not. it is a story where the dog does nothing aside from watching while his owner and the pet sitter get it on, and in pretty vanilla fashion i might add. not bad writing and an alright story i guess, but is sold to you seeming to promise one thing that it has 0 of in the entirety of the book. really wish this author wouldn't try to entice people into spending money on something that was NOT what they thought or wanted. if you found your way here looking for a little taboo girl-dog story, go look for something else. otherwise you may waste your money on something like this, and there are several others like it here on , that will not be what you thought you were buying. i can say for certain that despite the decent writing and sort of-alright story, that i will not be recommending this to anyone, due simply to the fact that it is blatantly misleading on what it is. this is why it stays so vague about any/all details, so you'll buy it and then realize you did not get what you were trying to buy.

Hot read! I hope the author does sequels to this couple's story. I really enjoyed the naughty male lead, his willing let sitter and the hint of taboo naughty, maybe next book might be more than a hint.

it was ok
