Master Intermediate Japanese

Synopsis

Ready to start understanding real Japanese articles? Understanding real Japanese material is incredibly satisfying, but it's also very difficult to find anything that is accessible to intermediate learners. This book is the perfect stepping stone from textbooks (or children's books) to real Japanese articles aimed at native speakers. The book, which contains 15 interesting articles (all written by a native Japanese speaker), helps guide the listener through any unknown grammar and vocabulary with translations and in-depth explanations. Essentially you will learn naturally, while having fun. Whether you are already an intermediate learner or are trying to break through to this level, this book is perfect for you. You will learn hundreds of new vocabulary and grammar points and gain the confidence and skill that come from understanding real articles. Take the next step and master intermediate Japanese with this engaging, interesting, and useful collection. PLEASE NOTE: When you purchase this title, the accompanying reference material will be available in your My Library section along with the audio.
