Customer Reviews

Tackling England thematically via the world's greatest bard is a novel concept. Howard does it deftly, and authoritatively, given he grew up amid the charming towns of county Warwickshire. Maps and photos present wonderfully, even at the smartphone level.

Great travel book on Shakespeare country. It includes useful information on things like smartphone usage and currency details. Pictures are wonderful and destination details include directions and cost. The book is very thorough and I recommend it as the primary resource in planning your trip.

Blair's writing style makes this read as easy as a novel, yet it's packed with informative tidbits and recommendations on everything from where to find an ATM to where to enjoy a pint. The images and maps are also very helpful. A "must" if you are planning a trip to Shakespeare Country!

This makes the ideal resource for visiting one of the most beautiful parts of England and I'm very glad I found it! It covers all of the major places to see, as well as some good suggestions for accommodation and other practical travel information. Excellent book.

Great advice and info for your trip to Shakespeare's country! Everything you need to know including wonderful photographs of a beautiful part of England and places to see further afield such as the glorious ruins of Kenilworth Castle a favourite visiting place of Queen Elizabeth 1st. A comprehensive guide written in a charming style a must publication to take on your trip with you.
