The Other Gospels: Accounts Of Jesus From Outside The New Testament

Synopsis

Bart Ehrman--the New York Times bestselling author of Misquoting Jesus and a recognized authority on the early Christian Church--and Zlatko Pleše--a foremost authority on Christian Gnosticism--here offer a valuable compilation of over 40 ancient gospel texts and textual fragments that do not appear in the New Testament. This comprehensive collection contains Gospels describing Jesus's infancy, ministry, Passion, and resurrection, and includes the controversial manuscript discoveries of modern times, such as the Gospel of Thomas and the most recent Gospel to be discovered, the Gospel of Judas Iscariot. Each translation begins with a thoughtful examination of important historical, literary, and textual issues in order to place the Gospel in its proper context. This volume is an invaluable resource for anyone interested in early Christianity and the deeper meanings of these apocryphal Gospels.

Bart D. Ehrman is James A. Gray Distinguished Professor at the University of North Carolina at Chapel Hill. He is the author of numerous volumes on the early Christian Church. Zlatko Pleše is Associate Professor of Ancient Mediterranean Religions at the University of North Carolina at Chapel Hill. He is the author of Poetics of the Gnostic Universe: Narrative and Cosmology in the Apocryphon of John.

Always a big fan of this author's work. This book does not disappoint.

good reading

High quality scholarship and breadth of knowledge.

This is an interesting collection of writings of what else was written about Jesus and the Christians of the early times.

A great collection of ancient text giving the multiple traditions and versions where applicable. Also gives histories of the various texts and translations including fragmentary pieces.

A must add to your collection, and a must read.

Excellent and complete

Interesting book you must keep an open mind on what you read and believe
