I was looking for a book that would be fun for the kids (who love riddles and jokes) and to get fun conversation started at the dinner table. This book works great. It's perfect for my 8 and 11 year old. The 5 year old gets a lot of them but many are over his head. But he likes laughing along with everyone anyway.

Some are riddles, some are completely unfair, some are silly, but there's enough fun ones and even a few actual thinkers in here that it's worth the price and will be fun to go through with your kids and pick out some things to mess with them with. Does it actually teach lateral thinking? Thinking outside the box? Or just to not trust any question and look for the hidden traps and tricks? Whatever. It's fun

I choose this is rating because it was a great way of making the children use their minds and think of different scenarios.

Fun for the kids....

These were very clever. All of them were good. My favorite one was the the one about the king and thief. If you are finding a book to read readers this book is good -Tucker S.

Great funny moments with my grandchildren (11 and 9 years old)!!

This is very interesting!

Drove my loved ones crazy reading those jokes out loud.
