Walter Reeves is known as "The Georgia Gardener." He is the award-winning host of the very popular Georgia radio program "The Lawn and Garden Show with Walter Reeves." He is an easygoing, instantly likeable, funny guy who has an immense knowledge of plants and gardening. As a Georgia Extension agent (now retired after twenty-five years of service), Walter gained an enormous in-depth knowledge of plants, plant culture, and plant problems as he helped educate the public about plants. Walter is the original co-author of the Georgia Getting Started Garden Guide (Cool Springs Press) as well as the co-author of Month-by-Month Gardening in Georgia (also for Cool Springs Press).

this book is very detailed and takes you through all the steps needed to plant and care for your favorite vegetables.

Highly recommend this book to a vegetable gardener that lives in the south. It is very informative I will look at it a lot..

All in all the book is very informative, but much like any other vegetable gardening book. As for it being a guide to Louisiana vegetable gardening, I am wondering why tips to grow our favorite creole tomato is not included.
