Customer Reviews

I bought this book for my 89 year old father. He loves looking for the hidden pictures and coloring them in when he finds them. These puzzles help keep his brain engaged, which is so important for the elderly.

I just love these books even if I'm 70 years old.

My 7-yo twin grandsons, who can be very different in activities they enjoy, both love these books. They get totally engrossed and work together to find the hidden objects. So far I've given them books with picture clues, but next I'll challenge them with words-only books.

Good exercise for older children, but the black and white design makes it decidedly harder...did not keep the interest in my 4 yr old grandson. Instead, we found other books that were in color which were more like the puzzles Highlights puts in their monthly magazines.

Kids love it. Many hours of fun searching for things. The best part is that it can be challenging as an adult to find a few of them. It's a great way to teach kids focus and object recognition. It's also a great book for long road trips (rather than electronics).

I enjoy solving puzzles with my grandson so I bought one for myself!

I use the HIDDEN PICTURES (actually, I edit them a lot) in working with autistic kids. We talk about them and usually I try to modify them to be cartoonish - with JOKE LINES. And we also COLOR THEM. This particular title is not my favorite from the series, but it was still very useful - and clearly better than nearly all of the competing products.

Great item. This item is suggested for kids 6 and up. If you have a 4 or 5 year old who really loves to search for hidden objects, don't hesitate to purchase this item. Book is quite sturdy and has solutions in the back of the book, in case you adults get stumped. This is also a good way to buy Highlight items without having to purchase a subscription.
