Customer Reviews

"I find this textbook to be an excellent choice for my students. My students come to me usually lacking in study skills. The learning objectives, key terms, and learning checks provide me with an effective way to focus their reading." "I am very impressed with the changes to this textbook. It is more engaging and offers a large variety of features to enhance the classroom experience. All of the updates to design and features improve the quality of the textbook and can improve the quality of the pedagogy and student learning."

Lyle C. Brown is professor emeritus of political science at Baylor University, where he served as departmental director of graduate studies and director of Baylor's Foreign Service Program. His international academic experience includes teaching at Mexico City College (now University of the Americas) and postgraduate study at the Instituto Tecnológico de Monterrey in Mexico. He received his M.A. from the University of Oklahoma and Ph.D. from the University of Texas at Austin. Dr. Brown served as president of the Southwest Council of Latin American Studies. His writing experience includes coediting Religion in Latin American Life and Literature and authoring numerous articles. Joyce Langenegger teaches government at Blinn College and is the college's director of professional development. She received M.A. and J.D. degrees from Baylor University, and an M.A. and Ph.D. from Fielding Graduate University. Dr. Langenegger has been named to "Who's Who Among America's Teachers" and received a NISOD Award for Teaching Excellence, Teacher of the Year for Blinn College-Bryan, and "Most Valuable Player" award from San Jacinto College for her work as a professor and administrator at that institution. She is a frequent workshop presenter on innovative teaching strategies. Before beginning her teaching career, she practiced law in Houston.

Sonia Garcia, Ph.D., University of California, Santa Barbara, is Chair of the Political Science Department at St. Mary's University. She has published articles on Latina politics and is a co-author of MEXICAN AMERICANS & THE LAW: EL PUEBLO UNIDO JAMÁS SERÁ VENCIDO (2004). Sonia also is the lead author of POLITICAS: LATINA PUBLIC OFFICIALS IN TEXAS (2007), which examines the first Mexican-American women elected to public office in Texas from various levels of offices.

Ted Lewis, Ph.D., University of Texas at Austin, is Vice President of Academic Affairs at Mississippi State Community College. He has taught government and political science at the college level for nearly 30 years. He was previously dean of instruction at Lone Star College-Cyfair and Professor, Chair of the Political Science Department, and Director of the Learning Communities Program at Collin County Community College. Dr. Lewis has conducted workshops on Texas election procedure for the Texas Secretary of State and has served as a county party chairperson, on state political party executive committees, and on several statewide candidate campaign advisory committees. He has delivered numerous national presentations and has published articles in such journals as the Community College Journal of Research and Practice, the Journal of the League for Innovation in the Community College, and the National Social Science Journal. He is listed in both WHO'S WHO IN AMERICAN POLITICS and WHO'S WHO AMONG AMERICA'S TEACHERS.

Robert E. Biles, professor emeritus and former chair of political science at Sam Houston State University, has taught college students about Texas politics in Texas, Colombia, and Ecuador. He received his M.A. and Ph.D. from The Johns Hopkins University-School of Advanced International Studies. Dr. Biles is the author of numerous books and articles. His involvement in politics includes serving as a school board member, county party chair, county election supervisor, and staff member of the U.S. Senate Foreign Relations Committee. He has advised state agencies and held leadership positions in statewide lobbying groups and professional organizations. Dr. Biles has received four Fulbright grants, as well as awards for his research, teaching, and administrative service.

I rented the Kindle version of this book for a summer course of Texas government. One good thing is that by renting the book I only paid a fraction of the price of the new book which is extremely expensive for a student and was unreasonable for me to pay. I only had to download the kindle app in my mac so that I could read it. The kindle app allows for highlighting, adding notes and also has a finder if you need to look for key concepts. The only problem for me was that the minimum rental time was 3-4 months and I honestly only needed the book for 1 month, so I think there should be cheaper short term options. Overall, I am pleased with this product and would recommend it. I did not receive any discount or compensation for my review of this product. My reviews are critical and unbiased and will always reflect my honest opinion of the product. I write my reviews with the only purpose of informing potential buyers and help them make an informed decision.

Got me through my Texas Government class. Love eTextbooks!!

Just another college text book. As promised. As pictured.

It's pretty much what you'd expect for a rental I got it with obvious water damage so there's that, but over all it's fine and cheaper than getting it from the bookstore

For a 2015-2016 edition it looks terrible. It has hand written notes and doodles all over with pen. I just received it yesterday and it looks terrible.

Great condition!

Book has some wear to it but still functioning. Great use out of it!

This books reads like a magazine or newspaper article. The information is very current and up-to-date; but it is very dry and boring. The class however isn't very hard.
