Whistler- Little Annie the Goose-girl by Peter Christen Asbj  rnsen There is also a bonus featuring fabulous original illustrations. Can't pass this up for only .99!

This is a wonderful collection of Norwegian tales for history buffs and those of an adventurous nature. Who doesn't want to take a journey into the past when men fought and died for land, religion, and love. I started with "King Alfred's Viking," and continued reading each book until I finished with the "Goose Girl." Full of adventure, action, intense drama, battles and historical references, the "Saga Six Pack 4," has the ability to enthrall those who love the tales of long ago!

I'm halfway through this series, and am stopping just to check the price again. This is an unbelievable deal for a fantastic collection of heroic tales and great illustrations. 10 stars " 5 for each half.

Readers who like history, action, and adventure would love this wonderful set of six exciting stories of heroes who died for love, religion, and their country. The books include wonderful, original illustrations. It's a thrilling read at a great price!

A very good value pack - so much info in one book - well recommended - 5 stars just for the value - 5 for the content.
