Czech composer Bedrich Smetana (1824-1884) pioneered a musical style that became closely identified with his country's aspirations to independence. Regarded as the Father of Czech music, he is best known for the opera The Bartered Bride. --This text refers to an alternate Paperback edition.

I love the dover study scores! I am a lifetime student of composition and orchestration - I always enjoy the small format that I can carry to concerts and follow along! My one continuous gripe is the lack of measure numbers - this is annoying during study.
