Synopsis

He's huge and hairy and hulking. He dresses in strange furry clothing. He sneaks into people's homes at night. Who wouldn't be afraid of . . . Santa Claus?!? Denise Joyce is a longtime editor for the Chicago Tribune and has the gold watch to prove it. She and her husband have two grown children; their behavior supports the theory that one out of every two children is terrified of Santa and clowns. Nancy Watkins is a Chicago Tribune features editor and writer who is much too good a mom to have ever forced her son, now 11, to sit on Santa's lap.

so many cute, funny santa claus pictures! Kids are just too cute sometimes. I am sure some of these photos are now total embarrassment to the now adults as they relive visually their escapade photos with Santa when they were young. entertaining. Made me smile over and over again. super quick read!

A great addition to your Holiday coffee table! Lots of chuckles to be found in this book.

Kinda just what I said in the headline. The online "Awkard Family Photo" series is hilarious, and that's why I purchased this book. Flipping through it before wrapping it as a Christmas gift, I wasn't that amused. It's alright (and truly a great stocking stuffer), but not nearly as funny as the online ones.

Got a small nicotine buzz opening the package then to find my "NEW" book marked with black Sharpie. What a lovely gift this will make. Disappointing.

Fun book to give teachers, friends, etc during the holidays. Lots of pictures with kids and Santa. Wish the book was available again in most stores. Need to order online every year months in advance.

Absolutely loved this book.

Hilarious, just hilarious. I enjoy this edition more than the later ones.

This is a great gift for Christmas -- stocking stuffer or just as a "hostess gift." This book is too much fun!
