Customer Reviews

This guide book came in very handy during my trip in Guatemala. It was especially helpful when we completed our planned activities, and were looking for spontaneous things to do. I got this and the Lonely Planet guide book, and they complimented each other well. It is, for the most part, accurate and up to date.

This was my only guidebook on my recent trip to Guatemala. Overall I found it reliable as well as indispensable. There is not much out there on Guatemala, and it gave me terrific advice

Good guide.

I found this book very useful on my trip to Guatemala.

Probably the best guidebook for Guatemala. Easy to read, good suggestions for places to stay.

I received a new appreciation of Guatemala. Enjoyed the section on Lago Atitlan very much!

Simply the best book out there for Guatemala travel!!!

I went to Guatemala April 2016 and it was very inaccurate.
