Customer Reviews

"Clinicians will love this book. You cannot legitimately consider yourself a real dermatologist if you do not have this reference in your armamentarium. I recommend that all dermatologists buy two copies -- one for the office and one for home. This is a superb book and I am delighted to own it!"- Patricia Wong, MD (Stanford University Medical Center) 5 star Doody Rating!

My favorite dermatology textbook. I use this weekly as a dermatology attending.

I'm a compounding pharmacist. This book is the best and the most comprehensive reference for dermatological conditions. It is very concise and organized.

Exactly as described! Great product, shipping and all around experience!!! Highly recommend!!!

Good reference for current issues. Concise and accurate information with practical topics. A useful guide to diminish the doubts of prescriptions and for continued education.

Excellent dermatology pharmacology book, a must have for every dermatologist!!

Stuff in here you're not going to find in Andrews or Bologna. It really teaches you pharmacology of the drugs used in dermatology. Really key book for boards.

Excellent book; if you need information about drugs used in dermatology, buy it and consult it. A lot of information in one book.

Wolverton's book is a classic in dermatology, and this edition is no exception. I especially appreciate the online version that can be accessed anywhere you have internet on any device. It is a complete version of the book, with the advantage of search.
