Customer Reviews

As an expat who has lived in Sydney for 16 years, and is a keen 'tourist' in my adopted town, this book fails on so many levels. If you had only three days in Sydney, why would you not want to do and see some unique Sydney things rather than this 'anywhere' collection of activities, eating and drinking. Seriously, please don't waste your money on this 'book'...

This book tell you virtually NOTHING about Australia, except the beach the writer viewed a sunrise from, the 30 mins he had breakfast, and his travel time to get from breakfast to his hotel room. Don't waste your money, as a local at the airport will probably provide more insight.

Just a collection of links not really a guidebook. Could not access on Kindle due to DRM restrictions.

Not worth the effort to download

Thanks for telling me to take a tour bus. :(I can figure that out on my own. I was hoping for a unique Sydney experience.

Didn't like

Who doesn't love Australia? Even if you aren't planning on going to visit Sydney, this book teaches you a lot about the area and is very educational and informative. It is well written, and the authors obviously know what they are talking about. I would recommend it to anyone who is visiting or just looking to learn about Sydney.
