Synopsis

The Short Jamaica Travel Guide Jamaica is, in a word, splendid. Rife with historical influences from Africa, the British Empire, and the Caribbean, it is a traveler's dream with culture, cuisine, history, and adventure all tightly contained in one little island. Jamaica is relatively easy to get to, the national language is English, and the variety of activities make it a perfect fit for people with different interests. Just the perfect travel destination. This is exactly what this Jamaica travel guide will show you without much talking. Straight to the point. Perhaps even more wonderful than the gorgeous beaches, delicious locally grown coffee, and famous music culture are the local people. Jamaicans are laid back and proud of their country, and are often glad to teach visitors about their home. Tour all of Jamaica's best loved spots, get to know the locals, and you may never wish to leave - only with this short Jamaica travel guide.
