DK eyewitness guides are the best. Good pictures, current hours of operation, maps throughout the book. I only buy other guides when DK is not available for the unusual countries I visit (110 so far). Never found any errors in text. Tough and plasticized so you can get a bit of water on it.

This is the latest edition I was looking for (2015). Nicely organized with many color photos and maps. The Guide is not as heavy as I thought it might be; probably because the book is not as thick as other DK Guides for larger European countries.

We just got back from an incredible trip where we learned, laughed, tasted and just took on the life of the Baltics. This book offers wonderful historical and cultural notes and helped us see many museums, enjoy the good life of summer, and also understand a little bit of the strength of the people through time! I especially loved learning about the similarities and differences of the three countries, and the time when they held hands across all three countries as a symbol of their desired independence. Over 25 years later, Lithuania, Latvia and Estonia could not be more independent and inspirational! Go now!

You can't beat the KD books. The only downside is that they are printed on such beautiful paper, good-quality graphics, illustrations. But well worth the extra ounces in the carry-on in my opinion. I see an awful lot of people traveling with them probably just for this reason.

Very comprehensive and up to date. Great picturesAs always a superior travel guide.

Lots of pictures and information, good for preparing for trip . . . and then for reliving it afterwards.

Received promptly, product as described. Thanks

Great travel guide.
