This is the first time I had heard of fruit infused water and I am very excited to now be making and drinking them. The lime mint is delicious and so refreshing on a hot Florida day. I like how the drinks are categorized into sections like "Detox" and Metabolism" for example. The book is well written with lots of helpful information. A more refreshing option to smoothies, These are great recipes for getting more herbs, fruits and veggies into your diet. Highly recommend

This BOOK is amazing..... I didn't realize how vast of an impact fresh fruits and fresh herbs had in flavoring water!! I am NOW experimenting with my own Flavor Combinations, with OUTSTANDING "MOUTH-WATERING" RESULTS! WOW! Currently, using Exotic Fruits from Asia and Brazil, and Exotic Herbs from South Africa and Far East countries. The Possibilities and endless.....

Excellent go to resource for adding a little "pizzazz" to your regular plain old drinking water. Lots of interesting ideas for more flavorful and enjoyable rehydration. I never was much into plain water, I was more apt to go for juices or other less healthy choices of refreshment, But with this great book, now I'm getting the daily required amount H2O for a healthier (and tastier) lifestyle. Heck, I've even lost a few pounds by simply drinking more water and less soda pop.

This is a great book for different recipes for infused water, if you are on the go you can make the infusion up the night before which will give it more flavor. Bear in mind that the fruit or vegetables get muddy and rancid quickly so I recommend that you just make a batch in a infusion cup rather than by the pitcher!

I got this book to go along with a water infuser. The recipes are varied and encompass a variety of fruits and veggies, which makes it easier to cater to my family's preferences and still keep something delicious and nutritious to replace high sugary processed drinks. I also purchased this as a Family Christmas gift, along with a water infuser....and they still like and use it, even 9 months later! :)

Initially gave four stars because many of author's recipes are free online, however, I enjoy my infused waters so much thanks to this author, I had to give five stars. My blood pressure actually improved after drinking the homemade infused waters. They are so delicious that drinking enough water to stay properly hydrated is no longer an issue. No more dry chapped lips or dry itchy skin. I have stopped drinking carbonated drinks and pseudo-juice drinks. I'm just healthier for switching my drink choices to water....infused water, that is. Current BP: 109/73, Heart Rate 58 bpm. Best results I have had in decades!! I'm sure my overall lifestyle contributes to these great numbers but the infused water plays a major role. Thank you Mr. Smith for "my" introduction to the world of infused water. Oh yes! I'm currently drinking water infused with hibiscus flowers, cinnamon sticks, and sliced red delicious apple. Simple, yet oh so very, very good!

I keep calling it a water cookbook, but you know what, it is amazing!!!! A lot of fantastic recipes!!!! You will be pleasantly surprised at just how much u can do with water!
