Faith & Joy

Synopsis

Fernando Cardenal, a Nicaraguan Jesuit priest, oversaw a national literacy campaign and served as minister of education in the revolutionary Sandinista government. The Sandinista revolution was unusual for the wide participation of Christians, including priests, in the struggle. However, the role of priests in the revolutionary government (including Ernesto Cardenal, Fernando's brother, a famous poet), was a source of bitter controversy with the Vatican. When he declined to resign his government post (judging that it would be ""a grave sin if I were to abandon my priestly option for the poor""), Cardenal was suspended from the priesthood and expelled from the Society of Jesus. In later years, following the Sandinista era, he was readmitted - the first case of a Jesuit expelled and readmitted in the history of the Society.

Fernando Cardenal is a Nicaraguan Jesuit and liberation theologian. He served as Minister of Education from 1984 to 1990. In 1980, Cardenal led the Nicaraguan Literacy Campaign, a Sandinista effort that succeeded in teaching basic literacy to more than half a million people.

A fine description by a fine man in a challenging position. Three cheers for people who "get into" molding where they are!!!! Thank you.

So honest, so moving. How can I dare to not have HOPE when within unbelievable circumstances, the people lived HOPE!

A GREAT PROPHET HAS RISEN AMONG US AND THAT PROPHET IS PFERNANDO
CARDENAL,S.J.,
