Money Matters Workbook For Teens (ages 15-18)

Synopsis

"Why learn to manage my money? I'm just a teenager; I don't have much of it anyway." Sounds reasonable, but it's not. Think about this: The average American teenager spends $3,000 per year. At the end of high school, that means you'll have spent $21,000. Do you know where you're spending it? While $3,000 per year is most likely a lot less than your parents spend, you should still be able to: Pay fair prices for quality items Avoid being ripped off by misleading ads and salespeople Stay out of debt Save up for a car, college, or your own business Give money that will make a difference in the world Have money to do fun things with your friends Larry Burkett and Todd Temple will show you how to take back the control of your money. You'll learn skills that will help you right now and prepare you for a successful financial future. Imagine what can happen when, as a teenager, you begin spending your money wisely.

Purchased this and the book (to go along with the workbook). Invaluable information, biblical principles. Definitely a must have for anyone struggling with teaching their children about finances.

Thanks Larry for this help.

Perfect for homeschooling!

My husband is in the financial industry and needed a practical tool for our 16 year old son. Will probably use it with our 20 year old son as he has a hard time managing money. It doesn't always come naturally!

Every high schooler and homeschooler should get this and work this workbook! It's so much fun and very relevant! Get this book!!!

The book cover states the info in the book is for the 15-18 yr old bracket. However, I feel the content may be for the younger end of that bracket. My kids will use and enjoy the book, but I will supplement with other additional means of info. As to the book itself, it is well laid out and has great pictures. It is sure to capture the interest of teens.

This book is a great choice for teaching teens about money. It covers lots of areas such as bank accounts, registers, borrowing, debt, savings, etc. We are using it for a home school coop class and it is working very well.

Teaches good life skills for teens with a Christian viewpoint.
