IÃ¢ÂÂm going on a business trip to Europe in about a month and IÃ¢ÂÂve been researching about the countries included in my itinerary. ItÃ¢ÂÂs not going to be my first time in Great Britain, but IÃ¢ÂÂve never gotten to tour around much in my past visits. I want to go to places other than London. This book was good in the sense that it gave information on what to do and where to go in the other cities in Great Britain like Liverpool, Manchester and Cardiff. It was shorter than I expected, but thatÃ¢ÂÂs good because it had no nonsense and just got straight to the point. However, I wouldÃ¢ÂÂve enjoyed this better if the author included photos of the actual tourist spots. I wouldÃ¢ÂÂve liked a preview of where IÃ¢ÂÂm going. I know I can just google but that wouldÃ¢ÂÂve been more convenient for me.

I received my copy today and am very disappointed. While Mr. Spector lists ten top attractions in ten prominent cities in Great Britain, there are no maps and no pertinent information, such as street addresses, phone numbers, websites, hours of operation, admission fees, etc. This book could be written by any middle school student with access to Wikipedia or Google, or an old fashioned encyclopedia. In the Conclusion, Mr. Spector asks his reader to leave a positive review on . I'm sorry, Mr. Spector. This is the best I can do for you.

Oh, if only I could pack my things now and head my way to Great Britain. This book makes me dream about this really beautiful place. Packed with simple yet captivating description of the cities of Great Britain and their top tourist attractions. You can save time looking for places to go while touring with the help of this book and be able maximize your stay and make one great unforgettable experience. Such a practical and convenient travel guide book.

This book is your passport to the most relevant, up-to-date advice on what to see and skip, and what hidden discoveries await you. Ponder the mysteries of Stonehenge, blend medieval with modern during a London city tour, or follow a round of golf with a wee dram of Scottish whisky; all with your trusted travel companion. Get to the heart of Great Britain and begin your journey now!

A very informative guide. I feel like I am travelling virtually to the places in Great Britain. It was my dream travelling to this enchanting place ever since. This book would be an excellent guide to those who want to visit Great Britain. I would definitely recommend this book especially for those who really love travelling.

If you like concise "best of" type travel books then you will love this one. I didn't realize it until I received it, but it is only 52 pages of large print with lots of white space. That said, it is a great way to quickly determine which cities and attractions you might enjoy while visiting Great Britain.

Good summary of the most important attractions in GB, and handy if you are out traveling the country. It gives a brief intro to the largest and/or most important cities and the 10 top attractions in each city. Makes me want to travel :)

Syntax was off; seemed like it was a translation. Grammar mistakes. I couldn't read it anymore because it was written so poorly.
