Hello! My name is Alexis Dingeldein, and I'm a teenage author. I've been writing for as long as I can remember, and noveling is my passion. As a teen, I look around at the entertainment we're fed and desire something more wholesome. This is why I write my own books: novels that have humor, romance, and morals. My hope is that my writing will impact you.

This is actually written by Anna Z, age 12: I really like this book because it has some really funny parts. I frequently reread those specific parts just to laugh out loud. My favorite character is Melanie because she is very relatable to a lot of people. I definitely think this is an awesome book!

I have thoroughly enjoyed reading this book. It is definitely a laugh-out-loud kind of book but it also has great Christian morals which I really liked. It was definitely worth my time and I would read it over again. Thank you so much Alexis for such a great story!!!
