Customer Reviews

The northern two-thirds of the state is not covered at all, but it does an excellent job of giving you a feel for the areas it covers. With the kind of side opinions like what your friend would tell you.

Excellent guide. Moon books are always helpful.

perfect

This book should have been titled "The South Florida Road Trip". The author completely ignores everything north of central Florida and the entire panhandle. Half the state is not discussed. He refers to Daytona as the northern Atlantic coast. Daytona is 2 hours south of the border and clearly in central Florida. As it only covers half the state it only gets half the stars.
