Fatal Charm (The Seer Series)

Synopsis

In this vivid fifth volume of The Seer series, Sabine Rose is reunited with her ill grandmother Nona and her friends at Sheridan Valley. But the excitement of curing Nona-and discovering love with someone new-doesn't outweigh the burden of her father's dark secret: a daughter no one but Sabine knows about. Riddled with curiosity, Sabine uses astral projection to spy on her half sister Jade. And then one night-while out of body-she witnesses a gruesome murder! The victim appears to be Jade's mother, but the next day reveals she is very much alive. Was it all a terrible nightmare? A puzzling psychic message, feelings for two different guys, building resentment towards her father and Jade-it's almost too much to bear. And when the killer from her nightmare turns out to be real, Sabine finds she must open her heart to the person she trusts the least.

Customer Reviews

"Well-packaged light chills that should be a hit with teen girls."...," tingly and otherworldly enough to keep 'em hooked. The cool cover will help draw new readers and maintain those already into the series."

With plots involving twins, cheerleaders, ghosts, psychics and clones, Linda Joy Singleton has published over 25 midgrade and YA books. When she's not writing, she enjoys life in the country with a barnyard of animals including horses, cats, dogs and pigs. She especially loves to hear from readers and speaking at schools and libraries. She collects vintage series books like Nancy Drew, Trixie Belden and Judy Bolton. When Linda is asked why she'd rather write for kids than adults, she says, "I love seeing the world through the heart of a child, where magic is real and every day begins a new adventure. I hope to inspire them to reach for their dreams. Writing for kids is a gift, a responsibility, and an honor."

Okay, a once unique premise is starting to get a bit old. The end is predictable, and the charm solution is a bit ridiculous. The ease with which the characters put together vague clues was just silly. The internet is useful, but not that useful! Talk about a needle in a haystack.

I liked all of these books in this series. They were compelling and interesting, action packed and fun. Put them on your list

Fatal Chart is towards the end of a great teen series. This is a great book for those interested in reading about individuals who can make predictions or have special powers.

This book had me hooked from beginning to end! Sabine's latest adventure begins when she finds out about a "New" family member. This is an amazing book and highly recommend it!

This was a great series of books, I read them all. There was a bit of suspense in all of them, and it was awesome reading them on a Kindle because then I could just download the next book and start reading right away to see what Sabine was up to next!!

I absolutely loved this book and I can't wait for the next installment - Magician's Muse. You'll be rooting for Sabine and swooning over Dominic with this amazing story. If you're a fan of fantasy, paranormal and romance books, then you'll love this book. Hopefully as much as I did.

gotta read all of them you won't be disappointed

i love Linda Joy Singleton and i hope if you people out there read it be sure 2 start with the first book Don't Die Dragonfly (Review done by my daughter - under 13)
